FACULTY

Dedicated to Rocco Pollice

This edition of the School, as well as the preceding editions, were planned and organized in close collaboration with Dr Pollice who is no longer with us and to whose memory the School is dedicated

Chairman of the Faculty and
Director of the Course
N. Sartorius (Geneva, Switzerland)

Co-director
D. Bhugra (London, UK)

Teacher
J.F. Osborn (Rome, Italy)

Teacher
U. Volpe (Naples, Italy)

Local Scientific Organizer
R. Roncone (L'Aquila, Italy)

Teacher and
Scientific Coordinator
A. Fiorillo (Naples, Italy)

Scientific sessions will include frontal lessons and workgroups. Faculty members will continuously interact with participants.

The aim of the School is to provide participants with practical skills on leadership and research to be used in their daily work.

During the School, the following topics will be covered:

- How to conduct research in mental health
- How to perform statistical analyses
- How to make an oral presentation
- How to make posters
- How to prepare a curriculum vitae
- How to write scientific papers
- How to produce a good title
- How to deal with media
- How to organize and chair meetings
- Prevention, early intervention and outcome of people with schizophrenia

REGISTRATION AND ATTENDANCE

The School will accept 20 participants selected by the Faculty.

The official language of the School is English.

The participation fee is 1,500 euros and includes travel costs, accommodation in a four-star hotel, meals, registration fee and teaching materials.

By the end of the School, participants will be given a certificate of proficiency and a one year tutorship by the teachers of the School.

Each participant should bring along a poster and an oral presentation.

Posters

- The aim of the poster session is to improve participants' skills to prepare posters and successfully attend poster sessions.
- The Faculty will evaluate the formal aspects of the posters, not their scientific content. Posters can be of any kind and do not have to be original in content: they can have already been presented at conferences or meetings. Participants should have significantly contributed to its preparation.
- Each poster must be 120 cm (height) x 90 cm (width) and be readable at a 2-meter distance.

Presentations

- The aim of the presentation session is to improve participants' skills to prepare an oral presentation and to stand successfully as presenter at a congress or a meeting.
- Each participant will be requested to make a slides' presentation lasting less than 10 minutes. Only the formal aspects of the presentations will be considered, not their scientific content.
